Goshen — The Colonel Ellis Memorial Scholarship, awarded by the local chapter of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, is inviting high school students to submit 500-word essays on the topic: "Why is it important to preserve our heritage?"

The scholarship contest was adopted at the December meeting of Camp 124 of the Sons. It will provide scholarships of $100, $50, and $25 to high school seniors in the area served by the camp. The award is based on academic and community performance as well as the essay, which is due on April 15. Winners will be announced on Memorial Day.

Students in Orange, Sullivan, Ulster and Rockland counties are eligible. Students who wish to apply should get in touch with their school guidance office.

Anyone who wishes to contribute to the fund should forward their contributions to: Michael Bennett, PDC: P.O. Box 1824, White Plains, N.Y. 10602.
