Hospital Incident 79

Walter H. French was one of the brave boys who went out from Sheshequin in 1860. Enlisting in Company D, 17th PA Cavalry. He served under Sheridan in the 47th Regular engagement in which he participated with the enemy at Front Royal VA., Aug 16, 1864. He had his leg shot off by a shell and his horse was killed at the same time. He was put in an ambulance and taken to Winchester, a distance of 17 miles, when he was captured the next morning. He was, however, retaken from the enemy at Winchester, Sept 19, 1864. Mr. French says: When I was captured at Winchester, the hospital I was in was located on Main St., there which the rebels ran, after being routed by the Union Army. Sheridan shelled them as they were running thru the town, their cannon balls passing thru the hospital, one within a foot of my head, which knock me senseless for a time, passing thru another room where another wounded soldier lay, cutting his bunk and even his sheet in tow, and throwing him on the floor without seriously injuring him. My company stopped when passing thru the town after the rebels and Amos Congdose, a member of the Company went out and brought the shell in that passed so close to my head.
